MOORE COLLEGE OF ART & DESIGN

GRATEFULLY ACKNOWLEDGES

ITS GENEROUS DONORS

The generosity and commitment of Moore's donors are among the College's major assets. Our donors know that gifts to the College can have a life-changing impact on Moore's talented emerging artists and designers.

Thanks to our donors, Moore can continue our rich tradition as a vibrant community of students, faculty and alumnae. Our donors ensure Moore's dedication to creating meaningful opportunities throughout the College and beyond, including our Galleries, Continuing Education and Young Artists Workshop. In fact, our donors are vital to Moore's ability to fulfill its core mission: inspiring careers.

We deeply appreciate the many ways that our supporters give to Moore. Whether through the Annual Fund, the Sarah Peter Society, scholarships, internships, Visionary Woman Awards, the Galleries, the Fashion Show, bequests or other special gifts, your support helps prepare the next generation of artists and designers to make their mark.

We thank all of our donors for their generous commitment to Moore College of Art & Design. Your commitment to inspiring careers truly makes a difference.

What is the Sarah Peter Society?

Named in honor of Moore's visionary founder, Sarah Worthington Peter, the Sarah Peter Society is a membership group of committed individuals investing $500 or more in the College each year. Members place a high value on the role that Moore plays in educating for careers in art and design and in providing a rich array of visual arts opportunities.

This premier donor level features exclusive benefits, including personal invitations to special events and exhibition openings. But the most important benefit of Sarah Peter Society membership is the powerful impact these gifts make on the lives of Moore's talented emerging artists and designers.

To join the Sarah Peter Society, please use the return envelope included in this issue of Moore Magazine. We look forward to welcoming you!
